To whom it may concern,

My name is David Wang and I am from Taiwan. English in Taiwan is a foreign language, but I have worked very hard to master it; just like a proverb says: "Where there is will, there is a way."

In my determination to become a better English speaker, I came to Guy's class. I like his hand writing, it is very clear and neat and I also like his pronunciation, a real north American accent, which is so easy to be understood. He teaches Interrogative sentences, Auxiliary verbs, Modal, Prepositions, and Conditions. He uses articles and computer materials when he teaches. Syntax and Semantics are also mentioned in the class time.

Guy shared the poem written by Lieutenant Colonel John McCrae interests me a lot. When Guy reads "We throw the torch: be your to hold it high if ye break faith with us who die, we shall not sleep, though poppies grow in Flanders fields", I feel tears in my eyes. Guy knows what is good for Students.

Guy is a teacher who knows how to inspire students. He lectures a robot story first, and then he asks us to write a journal about robot. This is a wonderful subject which gives me a lot of imaginations. Guy likes my story.

An excellent student surely comes from an excellent teacher. September 16th to November 19th 2014 is a short period of time, but I feel very happy whenever I remember Guy-- a friendly Canadian English teacher in New Westminster English School. Call 604-2889727 if you have any questions.

Sincerely yours
David Wang
